

40 DAYS OF OUR LADY'S
Blessed Messages

LENT 2019

MARCH 6

“Dear children! Pray and be aware that without God you are dust. Therefore, turn your thoughts and heart to God and to prayer. Trust in His love. In God’s spirit, little children, you are all called to be witnesses. You are precious and I call you, little children, to holiness, to eternal life. Therefore, be aware that this life is passing. I love you and call you to a new life of conversion. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MAY 25, 2014

As we begin our Lenten journey today, let us remember that “we are dust, and to dust we shall return,” that this life is made whole only through the love of God. With every passing day this season, heed the words of Our Lady and start each day with an act of conversion, an act of drawing nearer to our Lord and His saving love.

MARCH 7

“Dear children! The Most High has permitted me to call you anew to conversion. Little children, open your hearts to the grace to which you are all called. Be witnesses of peace and love in this peaceless world. Your life here on earth is passing. Pray that through prayer you may yearn for Heaven and the things of Heaven and your hearts will see everything differently. You are not alone; I am with you and intercede before my Son Jesus for you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MAY 25, 2017

“For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it (Luke 9:24).” As Jesus speaks to us in today’s Gospel, Our Lady also shares His message. May we pray for the grace today to see things as the Lord desires us to see them, that we may place Him first above all else in order to embrace His undying love.

MARCH 8

“Dear children! Today I am calling you to be people of prayer. Pray until prayer becomes a joy for you and a meeting with the Most High. He will transform your hearts and you will become people of love and peace. Do not forget, little children, that Satan is strong and wants to draw you away from prayer. You, do not forget that prayer is the secret key of meeting with God. That is why I am with you to lead you. Do not give up on prayer. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

AUGUST 25, 2017

As Satan wishes to keep us away from the promises of our Lord, so the Lord wishes to gift us with ultimate happiness. When the difficulties of our own Lenten journeys start to set in, let us remember to draw nearer to God in prayer every day– for strength, guidance, and a taste of His love and joy.

MARCH 9

“Dear children! Be prayer and a reflection of God’s love for all those who are far from God and God’s commandments. Little children, be faithful and determined in conversion and work on yourselves so that, for you, holiness of life may be truth; and encourage each other in the good through prayer, so that your life on earth may be more pleasant. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JULY 25, 2017

“Those who are not healthy do not need a physician, but the sick do (Luke 5:31).” We are all affected by the sickness of sin, but through the Lord’s undying love for us He sent us a beautiful remedy in the form of His Son. May we draw nearer to Him day after day, that His love may fully enter and continually flood our hearts.

MARCH 11

“Dear children! I am calling you to be prayer in this time of grace. You all have problems, afflictions, sufferings and lack of peace. May saints be models to you and an encouragement for holiness; God will be near you and you will be renewed in seeking through your personal conversion. Faith will be hope to you and joy will begin to reign in your hearts. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

OCTOBER 2017

In Sunday's Gospel, Satan comes to Jesus in the desert, taunting His divinity and tempting Him to break His fast. In the same way, Satan also tries to tempt us, to persuade us to settle for comfort in the midst of discomfort, to rip us from the loving embrace of our Savior. Today, let's pray for the grace to overcome these temptations. Let us look to the Saints, and Jesus himself, and live as they lived in the face of temptation.

MARCH 12

“Dear children! May this time be for you a time of prayer, so that the Holy Spirit, through prayer, may descend upon you and give you conversion. Open your hearts and read the Sacred Scripture, that through the testimonies you also may be closer to God. Above everything, little children, seek God and the things of God and leave earthly ones to the earth, because Satan is attracting you to the dust and sin. You are called to holiness and created for Heaven; therefore, seek Heaven and the things of Heaven.

Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JANUARY 25, 2017

In the words of Archbishop Fulton Sheen:

“Never forget that there are only two philosophies to rule your life: the one of the cross, which starts with the fast and ends with the feast. The other of Satan, which starts with the feast and ends with the headache.”

MARCH 13

“Dear children! God called me to lead you to Him because He is your strength. That is why I am calling you to pray to Him and to trust in Him, because He is your refuge from every evil that lurks and carries souls far from the grace and joy to which you are all called. Little children, live Heaven here on earth so that it will be good for you; and may the commandments of God be a light on your way. I am with you and I love you all with my motherly love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JULY 25, 2018

“In praying, do not babble like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him (Matthew 6:7-8).” Our Lord is good, our Lord abundantly gives. When we feel downtrodden, uninspired, anxious, or troubled, He calls us to trust in Him. He calls us to lay our worries at His feet, and to spend time with Him, who provides us all our needs and shelters us from every storm. When the weight of Lent and the dreariness of winter lay heavy on our hearts, seek the Lord, for he knows exactly what we need.

MARCH 14

“Dear children! You have a great grace of being called to a new life through the messages which I am giving you. This, little children, is a time of grace, a time and a call to conversion for you and the future generations. Therefore, I am calling you, little children, pray more and open your heart to my Son Jesus. I am with you and love you all and bless you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

OCTOBER 25, 2018

As we reach the one-week mark in our Lenten journey, let us reflect: What must I let out of my grasp to fully turn towards the Lord?

MARCH 15

“Dear children! This is a time of grace and prayer, a time of waiting and giving. God is giving Himself to you that we may love Him above everything. Therefore, little children, open your hearts and families, so that this waiting may become prayer and love and, especially, giving. I am with you, little children, and encourage you not to give up from what is good, because the fruits are seen and heard of afar. That is why the enemy is angry and uses everything to lead you away from prayer. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

NOVEMBER 25, 2018

“Ask, and it will be given to you...(Matthew 7:7).” As we wait for the Resurrection and give of ourselves this season, the Lord desires to give to us as well. He desires to give us Himself, to fill us with ultimate love, to draw us to the happiness He has waiting for us, if only we say ‘yes.’ Is our Lent empty, void of prayer, one of habit? Or is our Lent one of a growing relationship and embracing love?

MARCH 16

“Dear children! In this time of grace I am calling all of you to open yourselves and to live the commandments which God has given you, that they may lead you through the Sacraments on the way of conversion. The world and worldly temptations are testing you, but you, little children, look at God’s creatures which He has given to you in beauty and humility and, little children, love God above everything and He will lead you on the way of salvation. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

FEBRUARY 25, 2018

Even if we can't feel it at this moment, these days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are filling us with special graces that open us up to the love and will of the Father. During this time, frequent the Sacraments to further mold your heart, to break the stone and fill it with only the Father's love.

MARCH 18

“Dear children! Also today the Most High permits me to be with you and to lead you on the way of conversion. Many hearts have shut themselves to grace and have become deaf to my call. You, little children, pray and fight against temptation and all the evil plans which the devil offers you through modernism. Be strong in prayer and with the cross in your hands pray that evil may not use you and may not conquer in you. I am with you and pray for you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MARCH 25, 2015

For most, it's not hard to look at the world around us and see the evil that has infiltrated those things that were meant to be good. Satan attacks things of the light, he spreads lies about the dark, and makes empty promises about the things that lead to sorrow and pain. Where man clings to good, Satan tries to cling to man- to break him away from his source and strength. This season, grip tighter to the Lord. Rid your day of darkness and train yourself to recognize the light by spending more time with the Lord in prayer. To spread goodness in this world, you must first possess it.

MARCH 19

“Dear children! Also today I am with you and with joy I call all of you: pray and believe in the power of prayer. Open your hearts, little children, so that God may fill you with His love and you will be a joy to others. Your witness will be powerful and everything you do will be interwoven with God’s tenderness. I am with you and I pray for you and your conversion until you put God in the first place. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MAY 25, 2015

On this Feast of St. Joseph, let us follow this great Saint’s example. His obedience to the Lord resulted in welcoming Mary, his beloved spouse, into his home and caring for our Lord as his own. Just as Joseph joyfully and lovingly welcomed Jesus into his heart, how can we continue to allow Jesus into our hearts, our homes, our days?

MARCH 20

“Dear children! In this time of grace I call all of you: pray more and speak less. In prayer seek the will of God and live it according to the commandments to which God calls you. I am with you and am praying with you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

FEBRUARY 25, 2015

We're two weeks into Lent, and I'm sure the difficulties of fasting and praying are setting in. When being overwhelmed, stressed, and tired by the busyness of the world around us leads us to an attitude of giving up, remember that the first remedy to all of these things is time with the Lord in prayer. Cling fast to the Lord, sit in His silence, rest in His strength and continue the journey that lies ahead of you.

MARCH 21

“Dear children! Also today I am calling you to prayer. May prayer be for you the wings for an encounter with God. The world is in a moment of trial, because it forgot and abandoned God. Therefore you, little children, be those who seek and love God above all. I am with you and I am leading you to my Son, but you must say your ‘yes’ in the freedom of children of God. I intercede for you and I love you, little children, with an endless love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

AUGUST 25, 2015

In the words of Mother Teresa: “As Lent is the time for greater love, listen to Jesus’ thirst... ‘Repent and believe’ Jesus tells us. What are we to repent? Our indifference, our hardness of heart. What are we to believe? Jesus thirsts even now, in your heart and in the poor — He knows your weakness. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you.”

MARCH 22

“Dear children! With joy I am with you also today and I call all of you, little children, pray, pray, pray so as to comprehend the love which I have for you. My love is stronger than evil, little children, therefore draw closer to God so as to feel my joy in God. Without God, little children, you do not have a future, you do not have hope or salvation; therefore leave evil and choose good. I am with you and, with you, I intercede before God for all of your needs. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JULY 25, 2015

In the words of Peter Kreeft:

“There is one and only one possible road to joy: selfless love.”

MARCH 23

“Dear children! Also today the Most High gives me the grace to be able to love you and to call you to conversion. Little children, may God be your tomorrow and not war and lack of peace; not sorrow but joy and peace must begin to reign in the heart of every person - but without God you will never find peace. Therefore, little children, return to God and to prayer so that your heart may sing with joy. I am with you and I love you with immeasurable love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JUNE 25, 2015

“Blessed are they who hope in the Lord (Psalms 40:5).” When we remove the excessive things in our life that keep us from focusing solely on the Lord, it's easy to fall into the spirit of discouragement. It's easy to look around at the things around us and see the bad that overtakes the world around us. But it's also easy to see with opened eyes the greatness t the Lord injects into the daily monotony, we just have to choose to see it amongst all else. Choose joy, choose peace, choose prayer.

MARCH 25

“Dear children! I am with you also today to lead you to salvation. Your soul is restless because your spirit is weak and tired from all worldly things. You, little children, pray to the Holy Spirit that He may transform you and fill you with His strength of faith and hope, so that you may be firm in this battle against evil. I am with you and intercede for you before my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

APRIL 25, 2014

I always find during the Lenten season, when I greatly reduce my screen and social media time, that I feel infinitely fuller, despite my “missing out” in the digital world. I feel less anxious, more confident, and highly accomplished now that I have the time set aside to get crucial tasks done. When I cut out a stream in which so much worldliness flows, the Holy Spirit can more easily occupy my heart and captivate my attention. As we celebrate the feast of the Annunciation, let us remember the way in which Mary allowed herself to be filled with the Holy Spirit, conceiving Jesus, and maintained all hope and faith in the Lord and His plan to defeat evil.

MARCH 26

“Dear children! Pray for my intentions, because Satan wants to destroy my plan which I have here and to steal your peace. Therefore, little children, pray, pray, pray that God can act through each of you. May your hearts be open to God’s will. I love you and bless you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

AUGUST 25, 2014

Satan works daily to steal God’s children away from Him. But just as the Prodigal Son is welcomed back with a feast, so, too, are we welcomed back lovingly into the arms of God. Through continuous prayer and the building of an authentic relationship with God we can create a bond that we won’t desire to break and that Satan won’t be strong enough to destroy.

MARCH 27

“Dear children! Pray in this time of grace and seek the intercession of all the saints who are already in the light. From day to day may they be an example and encouragement to you on the way of your conversion. Little children, be aware that your life is short and passing. Therefore, yearn for eternity and keep preparing your hearts in prayer. I am with you and intercede before my Son for each of you, especially for those who have consecrated themselves to me and to my Son. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

OCTOBER 25, 2014

We are called to community with one another, to lift each other up, to hold each other accountable, to teach one another to love the Lord. The community far outreaches the living. When we build a devotion to a saint or multiple saints that have gone before us, we can see that reaching heaven and more perfectly loving our Lord is a much more attainable goal. Today, try to find that saint who can accompany you on the journey.

MARCH 28

“Dear children! You are not aware of the graces that you are living at this time in which the Most High is giving you signs for you to open and convert. Return to God and to prayer, and may prayer begin to reign in your hearts, families and communities, so that the Holy Spirit may lead and inspire you to every day be more open to God’s will and to His plan for each of you. I am with you and with the saints and angels intercede for you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JULY 25, 2014

In today’s Gospel, Jesus drives a demon out from a man, yet the crowds still ask for a sign. Although the Lord speaks to us in different ways, we don’t always have to have a miraculous event happen before our eyes for the Lord to talk to us. Sometimes it’s as simple as a movement of the heart, a word heard during prayer, encouragement from those around us, or the loving advice from a priest in the confessional. Do not despair, the Lord is speaking to you, maybe even in ways you never realized.

MARCH 29

“Dear children! Pray, pray, pray for the radiance of your prayer to have an influence on those whom you meet. Put the Sacred Scripture in a visible place in your families and read it, so that the words of peace may begin to flow in your hearts. I am praying with you and for you, little children, that from day to day you may become still more open to God’s will. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JANUARY 25, 2014

Reading the Bible daily is one of the 5 Stones of Medjugorje. It is through the very Word of God that He can oftentimes speak most clearly to our hearts. How often do we take the time to dive into the Scriptures? In what ways can improve upon this behavior?

MARCH 30

“Dear children! I am calling you anew: begin the battle against sin as in the first days, go to confession and decide for holiness. The love of God will begin to flow through you into the world, peace will begin to rule in your hearts and God’s blessing will fill you. I am with you and intercede for all of you before my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MARCH 25, 2014

Lent is a season all about beginning anew. A time to wash away all impurities and strive for a life that corresponds more closely to the commandments and laws of the Lord. The Sacrament of Penance is a great and necessary way to more fully accomplish that. When was the last time you were in the confessional?

APRIL 1

“Dear children! Pray and be aware that without God you are dust. Therefore, turn your thoughts and heart to God and to prayer. Trust in His love. In God’s spirit, little children, you are all called to be witnesses. You are precious and I call you, little children, to holiness, to eternal life. Therefore, be aware that this life is passing. I love you and call you to a new life of conversion. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MAY 25, 2014

The things of this world can seem enticing, can seem worth sacrifice, can seem worth the work. But at the end of the day, the things of this world are nothing, just as we are without God. Our Lady calls us to fill ourselves up with more, to embrace the eternity that we were created for. Today, let us focus more intently on the things of God, on the will of God, and the opportunities that He places in our daily lives to be witnesses to Him in this world.

APRIL 2

“Dear children! In a special way, today I am calling you to prayer. Pray, little children, so that you may comprehend who you are and where you need to go. Be carriers of the good news and be people of hope. Be love for all those who are without love. Little children, you will be everything and will achieve everything only if you pray and are open to God’s will – to God who desires to lead you towards eternal life. I am with you and intercede for you from day to day before my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

NOVEMBER 25, 2014

In today’s Gospel, we read about the crippled man who sits by the pool. He’s alone, he’s neglected, he has no one to help him to the water. Jesus sees him sitting there, goes to him, and tells him to rise. The cured man must have been filled with so much joy, to have gained back his mobility. How often do we see spiritually neglected and wounded people in our day to day life? Do we pass by them, without lending an ear or a hand? How much “curing” could we bring about, if only we shared the joy of the Lord with others? How many people would be able to walk again?

APRIL 3

“Dear children! The Most High is giving me the grace that I can still be with you and to lead you in prayer towards the way of peace. Your heart and soul thirst for peace and love, for God and His joy. Therefore, little children, pray, pray, pray and in prayer you will discover the wisdom of living. I bless you all and intercede for each of you before my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JUNE 25, 2014

“The man believed what Jesus said to him and left (John 4:50).” The Lord speaks to us always, but during this season of fasting, it can be a little easier to pick up His words without other things distracting us. God so wishes to grant us His peace and joy, but to obtain, we must above all believe what is said to us and place our trust in a God who fulfils His promises.

APRIL 4

“Dear children! Today, as a mother, I am calling you to conversion. This time is for you, little children, a time of silence and prayer. Therefore, in the warmth of your heart, may a grain of hope and faith grow and you, little children, will from day to day feel the need to pray more. Your life will become orderly and responsible. You will comprehend, little children, that you are passing here on earth and you will feel the need to be closer to God, and with love you will witness the experience of your encounter with God, which you will share with others. I am with you and am praying for you but I cannot without your ‘yes’. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JANUARY 25, 2019

Is Lent starting to drag on you? Do you feel overwhelmed, or maybe even disappointed that it's not going as well as you planned on it going? Our Lady reminds us today that life can descend into chaos and uncertainty when we neglect to spend time with our Lord. If you need help continuing on this season, consider this: make prayer the first thing you do each day. Through this time with God, you will receive abundant graces to live out each day and continue on with your Lenten promises.

APRIL 5

“Dear children! This is the day that the Lord gave me to give Him thanks for each of you, for those who have converted and have accepted my messages and have set out on the way of conversion and holiness. Rejoice, little children, because God is merciful and loves you all with His immeasurable love and leads you to the way of salvation through my coming here. I love you all and give you my Son that He may give you peace. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JUNE 25, 2018

“God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life (John 3:16).” Today, delight in the Lord. Know of His love for you, and realize that He sees your effort, that He’s proud of your longing to grow closer to Him. Your dedication during this time will bear many fruits in your life.

APRIL 6

“Dear children! This is a time of grace. Little children, pray more, speak less and permit God to lead you on the way of conversion. I am with you and love you with my motherly love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

AUGUST 25, 2018

In the words of St. John of Avila:

“Your life consists in drawing nearer to God. To do this you must endeavor to detach yourself from visible things and remember that in a short time they will be taken from you.”

APRIL 8

“Dear children! Also nature extends signs of its love to you through the fruits which it gives you. Also, you, by my coming, have received an abundance of gifts and fruits. Little children, how much you have answered to my call, God knows. I am calling you - it is not late - decide for holiness and a life with God, in grace and in peace. God will bless you and give to you a hundred-fold, if you trust in Him. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

SEPTEMBER 25, 2018

“Blessed are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance (Luke 8:15).” The more we are open to doing God’s will, the more graces are bestowed upon us. The more we are open to receiving those graces, the more we have to give away to others. The Lord never disappoints in his plan for us. Trust Him, and you will receive a hundred-fold.

APRIL 9

“Dear children! In this time of grace, I call you to prayer. Pray and seek peace, little children. He who came here on earth to give you His peace, regardless of who you are and what you are – He, my Son, your Brother – through me is calling you to conversion, because without God you do not have a future or eternal life. Therefore, believe and pray and live in grace and the expectation of your personal meeting with Him. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

NOVEMBER 25, 2017

In Sunday’s Gospel, we read about the woman caught committing adultery. The scribes and the Pharisees turn to Jesus and ask him if they should stone the woman. Jesus responds, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” Jesus claims all of us, no matter what we’ve done or where we are in life. He desires to meet us where we are, to embrace us, and take us with Him on a journey of ultimate peace and joy. Don’t be afraid to meet him.

APRIL 10

“Dear children! Also today I am calling all of you to prayer. You cannot live without prayer, because prayer is a chain which brings you closer to God. Therefore, little children, in humility of heart return to God and to His commandments so that with all of your heart you are able to say: as it is in Heaven so may it be on earth. You, little children, are free to in freedom decide for God or against Him. See where Satan wants to pull you into sin and slavery. Therefore, little children, return to my heart so that I can lead you to my Son Jesus who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

JANUARY 25, 2016

As much as Satan tries to tempt us away from Truth by offering us lies, so does the Lord wish to anchor us in joy and love with the kind of relationship only prayer can build.

As St. Dominic de Guzman says:

“Arm yourself with prayer rather than a sword; wear humility rather than fine clothes.”

APRIL 11

“Dear children! In this time of grace, I am calling all of you to conversion. Little children, you love little and pray even less. You are lost and do not know what your goal is. Take the cross, look at Jesus and follow Him. He gives Himself to you to the death on the cross, because He loves you. Little children, I am calling you: return to prayer with the heart so as to find hope and the meaning of your existence, in prayer. I am with you and am praying for you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

FEBRUARY 25, 2017

Today, make your prayer a reflection of the Crucifixion. Think of the suffering our Lord endured for your sake. Think of the ultimate sacrifice He made so that you may encounter eternal life, love, and joy with Him.

APRIL 12

“Dear children! Today I am carrying my love to you. God permitted me to love you and, out of love, to call you to conversion. You, little children, are poor in love and you still have not comprehended that my Son Jesus, out of love, gave His life to save you and to give you eternal life. Therefore pray, little children, pray so that in prayer you may comprehend God’s love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MARCH 25, 2016

Have you ever sat in the gaze of the Lord in Adoration? Ever just sat and stared? Sometimes it’s in this absolute simplicity that we can most easily ask the Lord to show us His love and receive it from Him. Take some time today to visit the Lord in Adoration.

APRIL 13

“Dear children! In this time of grace, I am calling all of you to conversion. Little children, you love little and pray even less. You are lost and do not know what your goal is. Take the cross, look at Jesus and follow Him. He gives Himself to you to the death on the cross, because He loves you. Little children, I am calling you: return to prayer with the heart so as to find hope and the meaning of your existence, in prayer. I am with you and am praying for you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MAY 25, 2018

When we live life with open hands—hands that are ready to receive all the things God wishes to gift us— we find that we can acquire a greater happiness in life. How much more joy will we receive if only we fully trust the Lord to fill our hands? Take a moment to think of all the things that keep you from fully trusting God. What must you work on to acquire that trust?

In the words of St. Joan of Arc:

“I place trust in God, my creator, in all things; I love Him with all my heart.”

APRIL 15

“Dear children! I am calling you to be with me in prayer in this time of grace when darkness is fighting against the light. Pray, little children, confess and begin a new life in grace. Decide for God and He will lead you towards holiness; and the cross will be a sign of victory and hope for you. Be proud that you are baptized and grateful in your heart that you are a part of God’s plan. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MARCH 25, 2018

The cross is a beacon of hope for us this Lenten season. As we look at the Passion of Christ, the cross is a scary icon- it represents death, suffering, fear. But as we move closer to Easter, the cross becomes something else- it represents freedom, love, eternal life. Sometimes the way of Christian living seems very much like the cross on Good Friday. But once we accept it and strive to get closer to it, we realize that it really stands for the resurrected cross of Easter, the one full of hope and joy.

APRIL 16

“Dear children! In this time of grace, I am calling all of you to open your hearts to God’s mercy, to begin a new life through prayer, penance and a decision for holiness. This time of spring moves you to a new life, to a renewal, in your thoughts and hearts. Therefore, little children, I am with you to help you to say ‘yes’ to God and to God’s commandments with resoluteness. You are not alone; I am with you through the grace which the Most High gives me for you and your descendants. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

MARCH 25, 2017

As the end of Lent draws near, Our Lady reminds us of the promises of Christ, that we can be made new in Him if we so choose. Are you able to begin your life anew with the Lord this Easter? What practices of holiness will you continue in your day-to-day life?

APRIL 17

“Dear children! Also today I am praying to the Holy Spirit to fill your hearts with a strong faith. Prayer and faith will fill your heart with love and joy and you will be a sign for those who are far from God. Little children, encourage each other to prayer with the heart, so that prayer may fulfill your life; and each day, you, little children, will be, above all, witnesses of serving God in adoration and of your neighbor in need. I am with you and intercede for all of you. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

SEPTEMBER 25, 2015

Who do you see in your life that isn't filled with the joy of the Lord? Who lacks the faith, the will, the practice? This Lent was spent growing in your own prayer faith, this Easter, use your discipline and practice to bring others back to Christ. Pray for them, reach out to them, be an example of faith to them, that they too may share in the love and joy being offered to them.

APRIL 18

“Dear children! Open your hearts to the grace which God is giving you through me, as a flower that opens to the warm rays of the sun. Be prayer and love for all those who are far from God and His love. I am with you and I intercede for all of you before my Son Jesus, and I love you with immeasurable love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Again and again, Our Lady begs us to pray for those who are far from God’s love, who haven’t yet encountered it or who have strayed away from its embrace. It hurts our Mother to be so far away from the Father and joy that he promises us through relationship with Him. Today let us pray, that we may more closely encounter the Lord’s love and be a guiding light for those who have yet to fully encounter it.

“Dear children! You see, hear and feel that in the hearts of many people there is no God. They do not want Him, because they are far from prayer and do not have peace. You, little children, pray - live God’s commandments. You be prayer, you who from the very beginning said ‘yes’ to my call. Witness God and my presence and do not forget, little children: I am with you and I love you. From day to day I present you all to my Son Jesus. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Fr. Henri Nouwen says:

“The world tells you many lies about who you are, and you simply have to be realistic enough to remind yourself of this. Every time you feel hurt, offended, or rejected, you have to dare to say to yourself: these feelings, strong as they may be, are not telling me the truth about myself. The truth...is that I am the chosen child of God, precious in God’s eyes, called the Beloved from all eternity, and held safe in an everlasting embrace.”

“Dear children! Today I am calling you to live your new life with Jesus. May the Risen One give you strength to always be strong in the trials of life and to be faithful and persevering in prayer; because Jesus saved you by His wounds and by His Resurrection gave you new life. Pray, little children, and do not lose hope. May joy and peace be in your hearts and witness the joy that you are mine. I am with you and love you all with my motherly love. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

As the Resurrection approaches, let us not forget that the Resurrection could only happen because of the Crucifixion. This is our opportunity to leave all our troubles, our anxieties, our fears at the foot of the cross, to nail them down so that they may not journey with us into a new resurrected life. A life that is lived side-by-side with the Savior and a hope in His promises. Draw near to Jesus in his sufferings this week, so that you may truly rise unburdened with Him on Easter.
