A TRULY CATHOLIC PILGRIMAGE

Tekton Ministries has been leading Catholic pilgrimages for more than 20 years. Working closely with your bishop to create a thoughtfully planned itinerary, we help make the Catholic faith more tangible to your daily life by taking you to the homeland of saints and martyrs. Although we visit numerous sites in this historic region, daily Mass and time for prayerful reflection are important parts of each day's experience.

We use only experienced Christian or Catholic guides, so you receive truthful explanations of scripture and the places we encounter. When the disciple Philip asked the Eunuch (who was reading Isaiah) if he understood what he was reading, the man responded, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" (Acts 8:35) Just as Philip guided the Eunuch with "the good news of Jesus," your Tekton pilgrimage will guide you into a deeper understanding of the Scriptures. Our prayers, service, and love of our Lord go with you.

- Day 1 - Saturday, June 17
Arrive London

Our spiritual journey begins as we arrive in London after our overseas flight and gather at our hotel. The remainder of the day will be free for settling into our hotel and personal activities. (D)

- Day 2 - Sunday, June 18
London

This morning we will begin on the Chelsea estate of St. Thomas More, where we can still see the mulberry tree planted by St. Thomas in what is now the garden of Allen Hall, the Seminary for the Diocese of Westminster. Proceed to Crosby Hall and view from the outside More's former London home, relocated and reconstructed in the 20th century. Visit Chelsea Old Church, site of the More family tomb, and the famous statue of St. Thomas More, commemorating him as "saint, scholar, and statesman." This afternoon, we will enjoy a tour of important London sites in St. Thomas More's early life, beginning with a journey down Milk Street, where he was born on February 7, 1478. Visit the church of St. Lawrence Jewry, the parish church of the More family, where St. Thomas lectured on St. Augustine's City of God. Continue to the Guildhall (subject to availability), London's oldest secular building, which sits on top of London's largest medieval crypt, housing a beautiful stained-glass window of St. Thomas. (B, D, Mass)

Tomb of St. Thomas More

London Tower

Canterbury Cathedral

- Day 3 - Monday, June 19
London - Day Excursion to Rochester and Canterbury

Today we enjoy a full-day excursion to Rochester and Canterbury. In Rochester, home of St. John Fisher, we will have an outside view of Rochester Cathedral, former seat of the Catholic diocese of Rochester, and visit the chapel built in honor and memory of this courageous bishop - the only Bishop of England to vocally oppose King Henry VIII. We continue to Canterbury, the most important ancient city in England. In 597 Augustine arrived, sent by Pope Gregory the Great from Rome. In 598, Augustine established a Benedictine monastery which became the burial place of the Kings and Archbishops. St. Dunstan's Church (now belonging to the Church of England) houses the burial crypt of the Roper family (St. Thomas More's daughter and family), which also contains the head of St. Thomas More. In Canterbury Cathedral, St. Thomas a Becket was martyred by the Knights of Henry II in 1170 while praying vespers and three years later was canonized. It was to his tomb where Chaucer's pilgrims were traveling in The Canterbury Tales. We will have a guided tour of this marvelous cathedral with some time at leisure before returning to London. (B, D, Mass)

- Day 4 - Tuesday, June 20
London

We begin this morning with a visit to St. Etheldreda's church, the oldest Catholic Church in England, with its beautiful stained-glass depictions of biblical and historic events, including the English martyrs. We will

University of Oxford

Windsor Castle

then proceed to Lincoln's Inn, St. Thomas More's law school, and the oldest of the four British Inns of Court, followed by St. Paul's Cathedral, the masterpiece designed by Sir Christopher Wren. Here we will see the outdoor monument dedicated to St. Paul's Cross, the former open-air pulpit where St. Thomas More likely heard lectures, sermons and debates. This afternoon, we visit the infamous Tower of London with its instantly recognizable Beefeaters in their traditional Tudor costumes. The Tower has been amongst other things, a prison and a palace, and Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, along with Anne Boleyn and Sir Walter Raleigh all spent their last days here before execution on Tower Green. We will spend time in prayer in the Chapel of St. Peter ad Vincula and venerate the burial place of Sts. More and Fisher, followed by a visit to Tower Hill, a plaque and small garden commemorate the famed execution site, as well as all those executed here. (B, D, Mass)

● Day 5 - Wednesday, June 21
London - Day Excursion to Oxford

Today we take a day-long excursion to Oxford, home of the University of Oxford, the oldest university in the English speaking world. St. Thomas More studied here for two years at what is now Christ College. He also served as High Steward in 1524 and wrote a letter defending Greek studies at the University. St. John Henry Newman is also closely associated with Oxford University, as he first studied at Trinity College, and then earned a fellowship at Oriol College. Newman was an influential member of the Oxford

Rochester Cathedral

Movement, which sought to reinstate former traditions that had been excluded from Anglican liturgy and theology. His studies and work at Oxford eventually contributed to his conversion from Anglicanism to Catholicism. Enjoy a tour of the university and some free time before returning to London. (B, D, Mass)

● Day 6 - Thursday, June 22
London - Feast Day of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher

Our day begins with a tour of Parliament by a Catholic Parliamentarian (subject to availability), where we will have the opportunity to view the life-size mural of Sir Thomas More Refusing to Grant Wolsey a Subsidy (sometimes known as Sir Thomas More Defending the Liberty of the House of Commons), one of eight murals in the "Building of Britain" series. Westminster Hall is the oldest building on the Parliamentary estate and was the legal and administrative center of the kingdom for several centuries, beginning in the 12th century. Many notable trials took place there, including William Wallace, St. Thomas More, St. John Fisher, and St. Edmund Campion and companions. Here we shall see where the trials took place, where St. Thomas More worked for decades, and where Pope Benedict spoke in 2010 on St. Thomas More, law, conscience, and religious liberty. Afterwards, we will continue to Westminster Abbey for a tour, including the Chapter House, where Parliament met for a time in the 14th century. Following ample time to admire the magnificent edifice and personal prayer and reflection time, we return to our hotel for the evening. (B, D, Mass)

● Day 7 - Friday, June 23
London - Day Excursion to Runnymede and Windsor Castle

After breakfast, we depart on our last day-long excursion of our pilgrimage, to the site of the signing of the Magna Carta in Runnymede, followed by a visit to Windsor Castle. It was here that St. Thomas More served at Henry VIII's court. Our afternoon activities contain a few options around London. Dinner will be on your own. (B)

● Day 8 - Saturday, June 24
London / USA

This morning we transfer to the airport to catch our return flight home, taking with us all the graces and blessings of this pilgrimage with St. Thomas More and other Saints of England. (B)
